

Rules at the station

In case of emergency : 9-1-1

Welcome to the Radisson Ecological Research Station !

To make your stay comfortable and make sure you meet the requirements, please read the following carefully.

Upon arrival: Upon arrival, open the circuit breakers for the heating in the electrical panel.

During your stay :

- When departing for your daily excursions, lock the doors and close the windows;
- At the station, leave all sets of keys on the kitchen table.
- Towels, bedding and furniture (for e.g., kitchen chairs) should not be used outside or transferred from one house to another.
- Garbage collection is on Tuesday morning. Put the bags in the container provided for that purpose.
- Recyclable materials must be grouped neatly in cardboard boxes and stored out of the way.

Sharing the facility with other users : It is possible that more than one team stay at the station simultaneously. In such circumstances, it is necessary to dedicate a space of residence for the new comers.

Creating a good atmosphere :

- Always keep the area clean.
- Do the dishes every day.
- Keep kitchen counters free of objects.
- Do not walk with outdoor shoes indoors.
- Vacuum regularly to reduce the amount of sand.
- Wash the bathtub and the toilet frequently.
- Manage perishable food.

CEN policies :

- Moderate alcohol consumption is tolerated at the station.
- Consumption of drugs is prohibited in the station.
The houses are "smoke free" and the exterior must be free of cigarette butts.
- Noise must be limited at all times to respect the neighborhood.

CEN has a good reputation in Radisson that it wishes to maintain. Its visitors are its ambassadors.

Before leaving :

- Store and wash all soiled linens, including tea towels and dishcloths.
- Replace toilet paper, dish soap and other essential commodities.
- Empty the dishwasher.

Post-visit
reporting :

Report to CEN any defects, broken material, need for major cleaning or additional information that could be included in this manual.
